

Air Liquide International Internship Program 2010

We are looking for a student who is interested to take part in the program, which

- gives you the opportunity too discover Air Liquide's activities and culture
- makes you an active member of an Air Liquide team
- enhances your ability to integrate and adapt o new situations and new work environments
- offers you an international experience and involvement in a multicultural atmosphere

Between the beginning of June and the end of August 2010, your internship will take place in either Paris or Grenoble (France) for the duration of tow to three months.

The student we are looking for has the following qualifications

- A penultimate student (who will graduate within 1 year)
- Major in Engineering or Business
- Excellent academic record
- Fluent in English
- Strong interest in industrial activities
- Excellent interpersonal skills, International focus
- Willingness to challenge themselves
- Curiosity, trustworthy
- Autonomy, motivation and ability to adapt in a different context

Interested? Please send your CV and a personal letter introducing yourself to christa.plambek@airliquide.com not later than the 24th of March.